FIGHTLIFE

FightLife "Greater" Sports Camp

We held our FightLife summer overnight "Greater" sports camp from August 24-28, 2023. During the five-day camp, over 75 young people from ages 14 and above had the opportunity to hear the Gospel.

They had the chance to meet famous sportsmen and improve their skills in Martial Arts and CrossFit. FightLife Lebanon also joined us during the camp. The most important parts of the camp were evening programs and huddles, where young people heard about Jesus and how He loves them. We made it our goal to train not only their bodies but also their hearts. After the camp, eight young people gave their lives to Jesus on the spot. Together we are reaching young hearts for God! We continue to share the Gospel and their hearts are softening.

John 3:30

He must become greater; I must become less.

Other exciting news!

We had the amazing privilege of organizing a Mixed Martial Arts clinic on August 28 with Nate Marquardt (former Ultimate Fighting Championship) and over 50 athletes at the Armenian Olympic Base in Yerevan. After the practice, Nate shared the Gospel and we ended the seminar with prayer. We were told that this was the first time that prayers were ever offered at the Olympic Base.

On October 6th our athlete Erik Evoyan (at right) who repented through Fight Life ministry and got baptized in our "Selah" church took first place in a boxing tournament in Poland. After the match, he shouted out that his victory was thanks to the grace of God!

On October 1st we organized a trash collection with the entire group of FightLife kids and staff, during which the kids learned how to take care of their city.

Please support us in prayer

- for the work of the Holy Spirit to continue in the hearts of our athletes and coaches
- for servant hearts for all the FightLife staff and volunteers
- for our ministry's financial needs, in order for the FightLife vision to be fully realized
- for our families that the peace of Christ dwell in our hearts
