Preparations Underway for Armenia Open Martial Arts Festival

We're pleased to share that another official meeting of the organizing committee for the Armenia Open international martial arts festival has taken place. The event is scheduled to be held in Armenia at the end of September.

The meeting was attended by several key figures, including Rudolf Grigoryan, President of the Fudokan Union of Russia, Artur Agadzhanyan, Honorary President of the Jiu-Jitsu Federation of the Ivanovo Region, and Gevorg Ayvazyan, Head of the Organizing Committee on the Armenian side.

The host side demonstrated a high level of preparation, presenting the venue in Vanadzor, outlining the tournament's structure, prize fund, and security arrangements — all of which were met with positive feedback.

The festival will be held with the support of both the regional government and the city administration.

The Armenia Open will welcome athletes from Russia, Armenia, Georgia, Iran, and Belarus, promising to be a truly international and high-level event.

It's worth noting that a previous meeting of the Armenia Open organizing committee took place earlier this year, in March, in Russia's Ivanovo Region.
